Freedom
through information

Tourism for All UK is the UK Voice for Accessible Tourism.

We are a national charity dedicated to making tourism welcoming to all.

How we can help you?

We give information to help you find where you can go, stay or visit. At Tourism for All we believe that everyone deserves a break away, and a choice of travel and leisure opportunities, whatever your age, disability or circumstance. We give the information and confidence to take a break you may not have previously believed possible. We offer you an active network, passing on information about the best, and seeking to help change the worst.

Our service offers information on all aspects of accessible tourism, including:

- Accessible accommodation
- Accessible visitor attractions and activities
- Accessible transport
- Mobility equipment hire at holiday destinations
- Accessible overseas holiday providers
- Sources of holiday funding
- Many more individual requirements – contact us for further details
